

TEEN ART CONTEST Teen Art Contest

Longwood Gardens Community Read Inspired Teen Art Contest at Delaware County Libraries.

How to Enter

Turn this page over to find the full contest rules and entry form. Submit your own artwork to one of our participating libraries along with the completed and signed entry form, or enter online at www.delcolibraries.org/Teen-Art-Contest

Contest Dates

Artwork will be accepted online and in person, Feb. 1st through Feb. 22nd at 5 p.m.

Local library winners will be announced March 12th.

Winning pieces from each local library will be displayed at Rose Tree Park StoryWalk and on-line at www.delcolibraries.org/Teen-Art-Contest with voting from March 22nd through March 31st.

Winners

Each local winner will receive a pastel set and a ticket good for up to 4 people for entry to Longwood Gardens.

The County-wide winner will be announced April 1st & will receive a teen book basket and recognition on the County website and social media channels.

- ◆ Students in 6th-12th grade are encouraged to submit artwork to their local library or on-line at www.delcolibraries.org/Teen-Art-Contest from February 1st through February 22nd at 5 p.m. Please check with your local library regarding curbside pick-up or other COVID-19 restrictions.
- ◆ All artwork should be inspired by The Longwood Garden Community Read theme of birds.
- ◆ Entries must be an original artwork depicting a bird; either real or from the student's imagination.
- ◆ Entries may be hand drawn or painted. No photography or 3D.
- ◆ Original artwork must be 9x12 or smaller. (If submitted electronically, we will print it out at 8 1/2 x 11)
- ◆ For in person drop-off: The student's name, email and grade should be written on the back of the artwork with the completed entry form attached. All electronic submissions should be submitted here: www.delcolibraries.org/Teen-Art-Contest.
- ◆ Only one artwork per person may be submitted. Artwork must be original with no copyrighted material. All artwork must be appropriate for view by the general public, including children.
- ◆ DCL reserves the right to photocopy, scan, photograph, and video artwork as well as photograph and video artists for use on our website, social media and StoryWalk and invites other media to do the same.
- ◆ DCL is not responsible for any damage to artwork in transit. Artwork will be returned after April 1st to the local library. Questions? Contact Cheri Crow at ccrow@delcolibraries.org

Delaware County Libraries' Longwood Community Read Inspired Teen Art Contest : Grades 6th-12th

Entries must be submitted to a local library or online Feb. 1st—22nd at 5p.m.

Name _____

Artwork Title _____

Grade _____

E-mail & phone (please print legibly) _____

Local library or library submitted at _____

*The above information must be filled out in order for us to contact you in case you win a prize.

I affirm that this is my original artwork and no copyrighted pictures have been used.

I have read and understand the rules.

I give permission for my picture and/or my artwork to be copied or photographed for display in StoryWalk and on social media.

Artist's Signature _____

FIND MORE | DO MORE
An Agency of County Government

LONGWOOD
GARDENS